

OP|COSMETICS®

PROFESSIONAL HAIR REPAIR

— Made in Italy —

We want to give new life to hair, nourishing it, plumping it and strengthening it in a healthy way, giving every woman soft, regenerated and shiny hair.

We think that each head tells a part of its own inner identity, which is why we defend the strength, vitality and health of hair to enhance the uniqueness that exists in each of us.

Our mission

professional product lines and treatments

in salon and at home

HSP³ Complex

The most powerful reconstruction system

We are an Italian brand with an international vision, since 2015 we have been producing and marketing professional products for hair, 100% Made in Italy. Our products are specific for the care, the repair and well-being of hair with visible results from the first use.

We have created HSP³ Complex the most powerful hair repair reconstructive system, a complex of hyper-synergic proteins that work together to heal hair.

HSP³ Complex, is a compound, made of special active and natural ingredients, including hyaluronic acid, hydrolyzed marine collagen molecules, amino acids, that contributes to healthy hair by repairing weakened and stressed keratin chains, giving hair new life.

Our guiding values

Innovating by research

The OP|Cosmetics research laboratories aim at the continuous study of treatments that regenerate the hair fiber, high value products composed of excellent raw materials, sought after throughout the world.

The product formulations are enriched with organic and vegetal substances with high hydrating and repairing properties.

Believe in the strength of human resources

Create a competent and collaborative work environment capable of adapting to changes.

Respect nature

Be sensitive to the environment by using materials sustainable sources and ingredients of natural origin, where possible.

Producing in our land, Sicily choosing routes within the local territory in the production chain.

Signing Made in Italy

To represent the beauty and uniqueness of Italian style.

Support the craftsmanship and creativity of hairdressers

Being alongside hairdressers and salon owners, in the training and growth of their business.
